By participating in the VanWest Summer Camp at UBCO Kelowna 2025, students agree to follow all instructions from VanWest staff and adhere to scheduled times and appointments. A 10:30 PM curfew will be enforced, and students who do not comply may be expelled from the program. VanWest is not responsible for students who leave campus or participate in activities not organized by the program. Course information and schedules are subject to change without notice, and VanWest reserves the right to make adjustments as needed due to unforeseen circumstances. Any disruptive behavior or failure to follow the rules may result in immediate removal from the program without a refund. Any leader accompanying their group will be responsible for overseeing their students during both on-campus and off-campus activities, ensuring they adhere to program guidelines, are punctual, remain on campus, and attend all classes and activities. Students may only leave campus when accompanied by their group leader. VanWest staff will assist by providing support for students' safety and well-being; however, the group leader holds the primary responsibility for supervising the group.
