

1. I, the student, will cooperate with my teacher, supervisor, and/or host family. I will behave and speak in a polite, responsible, and respectful manner. If I am having difficulties, I will let the homestay coordinator, my teacher, or any school staff know immediately so that problems can be discussed.
2. I, the student, will speak English at all times during school hours.
3. I, the student, will go home after school unless there is a supervised school activity, or my parents have sent an approval letter allowing me to be on my own after class. And, I will tell my teacher or host family where I am at all times.
4. I, the student, will ask permission before inviting friends to my homestay. If I want to have a sleepover, I will ask my host parents first. If I go to a sleepover, I will call or text my host family before dinner, and I will give them the phone number of the homestay where I will be staying.
5. I, the student, will attend all scheduled classes or activities.
6. I, the student, will ask permission before using the phone, and I will ask permission before cooking.
7. I, the student, will be responsible for my belongings and my money.
8. I, the student, is not allowed to smoke or drink liquor anywhere in Canada. Any criminal or bad behavior will be reported to parents and police.
9. I, the student, will attend school on a daily basis. If I am sick, I will ask my host family to call the school for me.
10. I, the student, will participate in organized activities at the homestay.
11. I, the student, will inform my host family before 4 pm if I cannot join them for dinner. I will inform my host parents of my plans, whereabouts and when I should be home.
12. I, the student, understand these rules and agree to follow them. If I continuously break these rules, my host family/parents/agent will be notified, and I could be sent back home. I also understand that neither my homestay family nor VanWest College is liable for any harm that befalls me if I break the homestay or school rules. I also consent to VanWest College using my photographs or testimonials in their promotional materials.